Meet NACQJ certified quilt judge

Terri Miller

A native Arizonan, Terri Miller learned to sew through her local 4-H club and developed her love for quilting from her grandmother. She made her first solo quilt 43 years ago with a cardboard apple core template and some scrap flannel fabric. A professional longarm quilter for over 15 years and a member of the Longarm League, she is always excited to see the creativity of other quilters. She enjoys a wide variety of quilt styles and loves learning new techniques. As a certified quilt judge representing the NACQJ, Terri has embraced their mission statement – "Honoring excellence in quilts, encouraging success for quiltmakers".

When she isn't quilting, Terri enjoys working in her garden and the challenge of growing something beautiful in the arid high desert. She works alongside her husband in the family business. She is the mother of four and grandmother of 15. She invites you to stop in anytime and she will join you as you "Take it Easy" while "Standin' on the Corner" in Winslow, AZ.
