

QUILT TIL U WILT 2023 PROPOSAL

QTUW is a full-day, fun class taught by one of our Guild members and is usually held in June/July of each year. Previous classes have included dolls, clothesline bowls, and many quilts. Instructors are paid at the base rate of $35/hour for a 6-hour class with an additional fee per student when the number of students exceeds the actual cost to the Guild for hosting the event.

Anyone interested in providing a proposal to teach at the 2023 event is asked to bring a proposal with class sample and all associated costs, i.e., is there a kit and/or pattern required to the:

Jan. 14, 2023 Board Meeting

Sunbelt Development and Realty

#101, LV 89148

10 am

Are you interested in teaching QTUW this summer? Have a great project or quilt to teach?

Consider making a proposal! Also, bring your calendar with available dates – usually Saturdays – in June and July – so we can find a teaching location.

Contact Madonna Sanpei, Programs Chair, dqnprogram@gmail.com, for more information.